

wagoner, miller or otherwise, as the case may appear to the said inspector,' in the 8th and 9th lines of that section.

And the question thereon, being taken, was decided in the negative.

On motion by Mr. Bowlus, the said section was further amended, by inserting at the end thereof, these words, 'which said certificate, so prepared, shall be delivered by the said inspectors to the owner or owners, his, her or their agent.'

On motion by Mr. Steuart of Baltimore city, the second section was amended, by erasing therefrom the word 'new,' in the second line thereof, and inserting in its place, these words, 'good and sufficient.'

On motion by Mr. Bowlus, the second section was further amended, by erasing the word 'for,' in the fourth line thereof, and inserting after the word 'which,' in the same line, these words 'fact of substitution or agreement.'

On motion by Mr. Bowlus, the second section was further amended, by erasing therefrom the proviso, contained in these words, 'Provided however, that in no case the said deduction shall exceed the price of a new barrel.'

Mr. M-Pherson moved further to amend the second section, by inserting, in lieu of the proviso stricken out, the following:

'Provided the repacking of the same does not exceed ten cents per barrel.'

And the question thereon, being taken, was determined in the negative.

Mr. Miller then moved further to amend the said bill, by striking therefrom the second section, amended as above stated; which is contained in the following words:

'Section. 2. And be it enacted, That if any barrel shall have been so damaged, or otherwise defective, as not to admit of its being repaired, it shall be lawful for the owner or owners, his, her or their agent, to substitute a good and sufficient barrel, and pay for the packing of the same, or to make such deduction from the flour as may be agreed upon between the vendor and purchaser, which fact of substitution or agreement, the inspector shall also certify, under the like penalty as above.'

And the question thereon, being taken, was determined in the negative.

The bill having been read throughout and amended as above stated, the question was put, Shall the said bill pass as amended? And it was resolved in the affirmative.

The clerk of the senate returned the bills and resolutions of this house, of the following titles:

A supplement to the act, entitled, An act for the widening of Orange alley, in the city of Baltimore, endorsed, "will pass."

A resolution in favour of Benjamin Gudgeon, of Kent coun-
